

Welcome to Spring Insight!

Welcome to UC Santa Barbara's Spring Insight Open House. We encourage you to make the day your own as you explore the offerings that interest you. We all look forward to meeting you and talking with you about the very special academic community that is UC Santa Barbara. We're so glad you're here!

Sincerely,
Chancellor Henry T. Yang

Five helpful tips to make the most of your day:

- 1 Download the event app and full program
Bookmark your favorite sessions, look at a campus map, find places to eat and upload photos of your day. Download the free "UC Santa Barbara Guides" app in the app store or by visiting guidebook.com/g/springinsight2018.

- 2 Attend a faculty lecture
Get a taste of what life in the college classroom is like. UCSB is excited to host faculty lectures throughout the day on subjects ranging from conspiracy theories to business to geology. Make sure to attend at least one!
- 3 Take a tour or visit a fair
Campus tours depart from the tour tents  every 15 minutes from 8am to 3pm. Don't miss the Academic Information, Student Services, Campus Organizations and Recreation fairs  or the University Housing Fair ! (See map on reverse for locations.)
- 4 Grab some food
Campus eateries are marked on the map with a . For a full list of campus food options, check out the "UCSB Eateries" tab of the UC Santa Barbara Guides app.
- 5 Need help? Look for yellow shirts
UCSB representatives will help you find your way. Our student volunteers will be wearing yellow Spring Insight shirts.
