Virtual Resources

Ask a Gaucho: Student Panels - Tuesdays & Fridays, 1-2 pm
We will be hosting virtual student panels so that you can hear from UCSB students and ask them your questions about campus life, their majors, and more! Register for the panels here.

Admissions Counselors & Student Live Chats - Recurring
Students can chat live with current UCSB students Monday through Friday, 11 am-1 pm and 5-7 pm or Admissions staff from 1-4 pm using our chat widget on our Admissions website (right side).

Live Webinars - Varies
On our Webinars & Online Events page, students can sign up for scheduled webinars on a variety of topics. Check back often for newly added webinars!

Faculty Lecture Series - Mondays & Thursdays, 4-5 pm
Join a live faculty lecture from the comfort of your couch (or anywhere, for that matter). UCSB Professors will be hosting virtual presentations for students this Spring on topics ranging from Higgs boson to Hamilton and will be available to answer your questions. Now through mid-May, lectures will be hosted every Monday and Thursday at 4pm PST. View the full schedule and register here.

Virtual Open House
Did you miss UCSB's Virtual Open House? View the video recordings here and ask students questions during live text chats Monday - Friday, using the admissions chat widget.

@ucsblife Instagram
Glimpse into life as a UCSB student! We hold Q&A's hosted by student interns in various departments, major-specific, and student organization sessions weekly. These Q&A's are posted as "highlights" so that students can view them at any time. Follow our page here.

UCSB Publications & Virtual Tour
